

Is there a dress code?

While some theatergoers do dress up, you are welcome to wear what makes you most comfortable. Proper attire, including shoes and shirts, must be worn at all times. Keep in mind that our theater is kept cool year-round.

Coming to a show in costume or cosplay? Be sure to read our official costume guidelines before coming to the Hall. For the safety and consideration of all patrons, Performing Arts Fort Worth reserves the right to determine whether costumes and thematic attire are acceptable and appropriate and may ask the wearer to make modifications as necessary.

Costumes may be worn according to these guidelines:

- Full face costume masks, obstructive headgear and helmets of any kind, with the exception of cranial helmets for medical needs, may not be worn.
- Costumes may not impede or block the view of others.
- Costumes may not contain any props or accessories that resemble or easily be mistaken for an actual weapon.
  - Toy or replica weapons of any kind (swords, guns, handcuffs, etc.) or any other part of a costume or thematic attire that is considered a prohibited item will not be allowed into any Performing Arts Fort Worth facility.
- Costumes may not contain sharp objects, pointed objects or materials that may accidentally strike another guest.
